1. About Pleasance Theatre Trust

The Pleasance Theatre Trust is recognised as a leading cultivator of talent at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe, with each festival offering an opportunity to nurture the skills of those working both on and off the stage.

In 2019, our Edinburgh venues welcomed an audience of over 550,000 people across 27 days with a programme of 270 productions. In 2020, we will be presenting the Fringe's most compelling, entertaining and boundary pushing shows in 30 performance spaces across 3 sites.

As an educational charity the Pleasance is fiercely committed to developing opportunities to grow careers. In our festival team, experienced industry professionals stand proudly side by side with those just starting out in the Pleasance Festival Volunteer Programme. Together they support the artists on stage, visiting audiences, and each other.

The Pleasance is a hub of creativity which cultivates the brightest new ideas, raw talent and skills.

2. About Our Team

The Pleasance is a place for experiences – both on and off the stage. For staff, audiences and performers alike, we want this experience to be positive, lasting and even life affirming. We measure the success of our operation through the delivery of these experiences, not by ticket sales or 5 star reviews. To achieve this, we are looking for people who share our values;

- Passion – Our team is driven by their enthusiasm for what they do and why they do it. From this comes a unique energy that fuels us, creates momentum and permeates every facet of the Pleasance.
  - People – No matter the level of knowledge or seniority, each and every team member has an equal value. Our collective ambitions can only be achieved through the active participation of all. Our team are committed to inclusion, peer-to-peer learning and pro-active support.
  - Pride – We are motivated to deliver the highest possible standards with an approach that is as personable as it is professional. Our team takes pride in creating an exemplary environment where participants feel nurtured, engaged, valued and inspired.
  - Perseverance – We operate in a fast-paced working environment and take this on with open arms and eyes. Through a positive mind-set, good sense of humour and a “can do” attitude, our teams share both the challenges and rewards of an unparalleled creative workplace.
  - Progression – We exist to offer a platform to talented people looking to develop in the creative industries and will work tirelessly to support them in that pursuit. We are a family that is proud to be represented by an inspiring community of alumni that spans the globe.

3. About The Role

Role:	Stage Manager
Department:	Technical
Line Manager:	Venue Manager
Line Manager To:	Not Applicable
Working With:	Technical Management, Venue Technicians, Stage Managers, Venue Crew (Volunteers)

Role Description

The Stage Manager will work within the Pleasance's largest sub-venues, and will take ownership over all the staging requirements of its shows from a venue perspective. Much of this will be focused around leading the turnaround process, overseeing the changeover and storage of sets to and from back of house areas throughout the day.

The Stage Manager will also deputise for the Venue Manager in their duties. The role requires a person of high organisational skills with an good attention to detail - logging and recording scenic, prop and people movements to ensure production continuity each and every performance.

All roles in the Technical department will work in a multi skilled team and be dedicated to a specific sub-venue. Each sub-venue will typically have a programme of approximately 8-10 performances per day. Roles will operate on a rota schedule during the Festival Period, with shifts loosely split into AM and PM shifts with a daily handover or overlap period, to manage the requirements of the daily performance schedule. The ability to work collaboratively with team members and performing companies alongside exceptional organisation is key to ensuring a smooth operation.

Key Responsibilities

- To work closely with performing companies.
- To work in close proximity with the same company and team members every day.
- To manage quick turn-around times, with as little as 20 minutes between performances.
- To be public-facing, assisting with seating audiences and managing them in the sub-venue.
- To problem solve, troubleshoot and think on your feet, often with little or no warning.
- To take ownership over turnarounds and to plan set moves.
- To maintain detailed notes on company requirements to facilitate days off and cover.
- To maintain an organised work system.
- Managing Plot sheets and turnaround tracks and in the process mentor and guide less experienced crew in manual handling and stage craft.

Get-In/Out and Technical Rehearsals

- During the Get-In period prior to the festival opening to the public, each role will actively contribute to the construction phase of the Pleasance's sub-venues and sites. During this period, each member of the Technical department will fully contribute to all manner of fit up and construction tasks. Tasks will be assigned to be appropriate to the team member's abilities, but may include physically exerting duties such as lifting; carrying; construction; rigging; technical installation; painting and finishing. This process is replicated during the Get-Out period, when venue facilities are de-rigged following the final performances.

- Technical Rehearsals with performing companies take place in all sub-venues from 02/08/20 – 04/08/20. During this phase, each sub-venue team will work through a daily schedule of technical sessions with incoming productions. It is the team's responsibility to make the visiting companies feel welcome, induct them into the space and facilitate their technical requirements to help deliver the highest level of production standards possible.
- These periods will operate according to the build, training and production schedule, and will therefore differ to the Festival Performance Dates when a daily rota is implemented. All roles should expect to work an intensive schedule during these dates.

Volunteer Support

All members of the Pleasance team have a collective responsibility for those participating in the Pleasance Volunteer Programme, including;

- Provide pastoral support to all Volunteers, remaining open and available for those who require personal or operational support during the Programme;
- Ensure the equal inclusion and participation of all by pro-actively engaging with Volunteers who may benefit from additional support to aid their development;
- Offer professional advice and support to Volunteers, utilising your experience to enhance the skills and knowledge of those participating in the Programme;
- Contribute to the creation of a positive working and social environment, ensuring clear lines of communication and collaboration within departments and between teams;
- Ensure the Volunteers part in the Festival operation is a fun and rewarding experience.

General

- Liaise with other departments across the organisation to ensure the smooth running of operations.
- Ensure that the Pleasance is represented to all visitors as having excellent standards and first class service.
- Act as a representative for the Pleasance and its values.

Essential Criteria

- A knowledge and passion for current stage technology and backstage theatre practises.
- Proven experience in constructing and building sets, setting up stages and coordinating turnaround or fit ups.
- The ability to work under pressure within pressing time constraints.
- Strong communication skills.
- Ability to take accurate turnover and show notes.

Desirable Criteria

- First Aid at Work qualification.
- Basic skills in carpentry & other scenic construction methods.
- Rigging for the Entertainment Industry Course.
- Experience as a show caller.
- Experience working at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe.
