1. About Pleasance Theatre Trust

The Pleasance Theatre Trust is delighted to reopen the gates for the 2021 Fringe.

This year's Festival may be smaller, but its purpose has never been bigger - bringing artists back to the stage and creating opportunities to nurture and support new talent. This is a moment to rebuild and rediscover - embodying the hopeful spirit of our very first year on the Fringe in 1985.

As an educational charity the Pleasance remains fiercely committed to developing careers. In our festival team, those working in the industry stand proudly side by side with those just starting out in the Pleasance Festival Volunteer Programme. Together they support the artists on stage, visiting audiences, and each other.

This year's Covid secure operation puts health, wellbeing and enjoyment at its core - having been carefully designed to adhere to all public health guidance and legislation.

The Pleasance is a place for everyone, built by us, but made unforgettable by you.

Join us.

The Pleasance Theatre Trust is a registered charity - charity numbers 1050944 (England & Wales) and SC043237 (Scotland).

2. About Our Team

The Pleasance is a place for experiences – both on and off the stage. For our team, audiences and performers alike, we want this experience to be positive, lasting and even life affirming. We measure the success of our operation through the delivery of these experiences, not by ticket sales or 5 star reviews. To achieve this, we are looking for people who share our values;

- Passion – Our team is driven by their enthusiasm for what they do and why they do it. From this comes a unique energy that fuels us, creates momentum and permeates every facet of the Pleasance.

- People – No matter the level of knowledge or seniority, each and every team member has an equal value. Our collective ambitions can only be achieved through the active participation of all. Our team is committed to inclusion, peer-to-peer learning and pro-active support.
 - Pride – We are motivated to deliver the highest possible standards with an approach that is as personable as it is professional. Our team takes pride in creating an exemplary environment where participants feel nurtured, engaged, valued and inspired.
 - Perseverance – We operate in a fast-paced working environment and take this on with open arms and eyes. Through a positive mind-set, good sense of humour and a “can do” attitude, our teams share both the challenges and rewards of an unparalleled creative workplace.
 - Progression – We exist to offer a platform to talented people looking to develop in the creative industries and will work tirelessly to support them in that pursuit. We are a family that is proud to be represented by an inspiring community of alumni that spans the globe.

3. About the Role

Role:	Front of House Supervisor
Department:	Guest Services
Line Manager:	Front of House Manager
Line Manager To:	Front of House Assistants (Volunteers)
Key Relationships:	Box Office Supervisors, Venue Managers, Duty Technicians
Contract:	Fixed Term - Freelance

Role Description

The Front of House Supervision plays a vital part in ensuring audiences receive the best possible experience of the Fringe and performance spaces run like clockwork.

Alongside the Front of House Manager, they are responsible for managing incoming audiences at the Pleasance’s festival sites - delivering first class customer service and ensuring that all set procedures are followed - particularly in relation to Covid security. This includes maintaining social distancing within queues, communicating restrictions to audience members, track and trace registration and sanitisation of public and performance spaces throughout the day. The health and enjoyment of visitors are of equal importance and the successful management of these procedures will require an attentive and compassionate approach that make this a natural, unobtrusive part of the experience.

The Front of House Supervisor works closely with the Box Office Supervisor and Venue Crews to deliver digital ticketing on the venue door and timely management of the performance schedule. They will also work collaboratively with the Edinburgh University Students’ Association’s operations team, who will run a number of integrated services and jointly manage the Festival site.

Leading by example, the Front of House Supervisor will maintain the Pleasance’s reputation for excellent customer service - providing proactive support to customers; answering queries; managing audience feedback or complaints; and dealing with ad-hoc operational requirements as they arise.

They act as Front of House Duty Manager whilst on shift, leading a voluntary team of Front of House Assistants. Alongside the Front of House Manager and deputising as required, they provide operational and pastoral support - ensuring they feel confident in their duties and thrive as part of the Pleasance Festival Volunteer Programme.

The ideal candidate will have experience within a busy customer service environment with a particular focus on customer care and site management. They will have an unrelenting energy that enables them to motivate themselves and others whilst working in a frenetic outdoor environment with the many potential elements of the Scottish "summer". Direct experience of implementing Covid secure measures is desirable, but not essential. They will have a passion for the performing arts and a natural flair for creating a working environment where colleagues feel supported, encouraged and are ultimately driven to excel in their role.

Key Responsibilities

Audience Management

- Welcome incoming audiences and perform digital ticket checks to provide entry.
- Manage house calls and clearance, working closely with Venue Crews.
- Deliver first class customer service, answering a wide range of audience queries.
- Assist audiences with additional access requirements.
- Provide ticketing services on an ad hoc basis, such as reissuing lost tickets, working closely with the Box Office Manager and Supervisor.

Health & Safety / Covid Security

- Oversee and ensure compliance of the Pleasance Covid Security Policy in queues and performance spaces, working closely with other departments and site partners at the Edinburgh University Student's Association, including but not limited to;
 - Social distancing is maintained;

Volunteer Support

- All members of the Pleasance team have a collective responsibility to those participating in the Pleasance Volunteer Programme, in any department or role, with responsibilities including;
 - Maintain a supportive environment and workplace;
 - Ensure equal inclusion and participation of all;
 - Offer professional advice and support;
 - Contribute to a fun and rewarding experience.

General

- Act as a representative of the Pleasance and its values.
- Be responsive to situations as they arise, adapting operations as required.
- Work cross-departmentally to ensure the smooth running of the operation.
- Fulfill ad-hoc duties on behalf of other departments, if required and appropriately trained.
- Ensure that the Pleasance is represented to all visitors as having excellent standards and first class service.
