Synopsis

"The city cringes at the soft wound of our open hearts as we spill our souls onto the pavements and rise aglow into the morning."

Rosy, Tommy and Kit are clued-up, kinky and queer as f*ck - until safe spaces fracture and identities start to shift. As events in the present bring past traumas bubbling to the surface, the bonds within this chosen family must shudder and transform if they are to survive.

A vibrant portrait of community, power and healing set in contemporary London.

Rapture is the debut show from Pink Sky, an emerging collective of LGBTQIA+ artists taking an interdisciplinary approach to making queer theatre.

This show contains strong language, partial nudity, smoke and flashing lights.
